HILLO JOURNAL.

Hilo has had a big musical treat. Prof. Yarnley worked like a beaver and the result was a grand concert at court house on the 20th inst. There was a splendid house full of reserved seats and most all of them occupied at $1 each. It rained hard just before the concert, which kept some from coming perhaps. Usually nearly a half of the house is reserved for half price tickets. The program was of the finest order, such, however, as we would suppose a man of Prof. Yarnley's high musical taste would select. Shortly after he arrived he selected six ladies and six gentlemen to sing choruses, and they had several meetings to practise. The concert was complimentary to Prof. Yarnley and was as follows:

PART I.

Glee—Arrow and the Song.....W. Hay
Violin Solo—Landscape.....Wienawski
Mr. J. W. Yarnley.
Song—Serenade, Violin Obligato.....Schubert
Mrs. Austin and Mr. Yarnley.
Glee—Carnival Singers.....Rossini
Full Chorus.
Violin Duet—Nazarath, Transcription.....Gounod
Dr. Williams and Mr. Yarnley.
Song—Gondolier's Song.....Reissiger
Dr. Williams.

PART II.

Violin Solo—Elegie.....Ernst
Mr. Yarnley.
Glee—Good Night Beloved.....Pinsuti
Full Chorus.
Violin Solo—Cavatina.....Raff
Mr. Yarnley.
Song—Sing, Suite, Summer.....Gounod
Violin Obligato.
Mrs. Austin and Mr. Yarnley.
Duet—(A. K. SHERWOOD).....David
Miss Curtis and Mr. Yarnley.
Glee—Sleep Gentle Lady.....Bishop
Full Chorus.
Pianists, Mrs. L. Severance and Miss Curtis.

A party of fifteen from Hakalau engaged the tug Rover to bring them to Hilo to attend the concert, but they arrived at 10:30 p.m. They offered to pay for their reserved seats, but of course it was refused. They took supper at the Hilo Hotel at 11:30 and left for home at 1:30 a.m. Of course they made the best of it.

Every selection on the programme was good. The audience was very enthusiastic, applauding every number. Many lingered after the concert to speak of the pleasure they had obtained, and to thank the professor for his coming and giving us such delight. His playing was greatly appreciated, judging from the great applause. Hope he will favor us again. The programs were gotten up in good taste, also the tickets, at the Hilo Boarding School, which is the only place in town where printing is done.

The musical and literary entertainments will commence again next month.

Sailed from Hilo, Aug. 19th, brigantine Lurline, Capt. Matson, for San Francisco with 550 tons of sugar. Passengers: Mr. E. E. Richards, Mr. Thos. Forbes, Mr. Frank Deacon, Mrs. Wm. Weight, Miss K. Reinhardt, Mr. Bamberg, Mrs. Bamberg and their three children, Master J. Sisson.
